

Hello Everyone,

Welcome to our first newsletter for 2022.

This year has carried on very much like the end of last; busy, busy, busy.

Work on the 24m Expedition Ketch, Artnautica 60 and the 18m Elite Mid-Pilothouse have been full steam ahead and we now have a second Catalyst chase boat underway for the America's Cup.

If you are interested in a career with Lloyd Stevenson Boatbuilders, we have opportunities for boat builders, painters and boat building & engineers apprentices.

Welcome to Robert Daly our new marketing and sales manager; give Robert a call to discuss your next project, +64 21 678 640, email robert@lsb.co.nz.

Have a look at our new "New and Reviews" section and sadly, we say farewell to our very good friend Don (Pol) Pollock, who passed away on April 30th.

Artnautica 60 – The Home Stretch

This stunning, Dennis Harjamaa designed, full carbon, sport fisher is now only a few short months away from launching. And this really nice 3D render, using Rangitoto Island as a background, was created by our friends at Mission 3D in London.

Farewell Pol

It is with a great deal of sadness that we mourn the loss of Don (Pol) Pollock.

Lloyd has had a long association with Pol, who suddenly but peacefully, cast off his lines for the last time on 30 April 2022, aged 86.

A talented boat builder in his time, a legend of New Zealand Yachting and a friend of many.

Rest in peace.

Refit, Repair, Rebuild, Results

Royce and the refit team continue to be busy with keeping the NZ based fleet looking immaculate and running perfectly. Boudica is undergoing its annual maintenance. Therapy is undergoing her inspection before she leaves for her annual trip to Fiji. Antipodes is coming out for a davit and tender upgrade and Ocean Elite is getting a new anchor winch. So, there is plenty to keep Royce and the team out of trouble.

If you need your boat systems inspected or are in need of some maintenance, please do not hesitate to contact Royce,

REVIEWS: Best Binoculars for boating – Tested: Steiner Navigator Pro 7×50. With Compass

Yachting World | Fox Morgan | March 8, 2022

These Steiner Navigator Pro 7x50 binoculars have been used (maybe slightly abused) for the past six years and have earned a 5 star review for being highly recommended as some of the best binoculars for boating.

The Steiners feel a bit like the Swiss army knife of binoculars.....
